

Another test

Sant Pere de les Puelles

Sant Pere de les Puelles (also Puel·les) is a Benedictine monastery in the Sant Pere, Santa Caterina i la Ribera neighborhood of the Ciutat Vella district of Barcelona, Catalonia, Spain. The 10th-century building, Romanesque/Gothic in style, was declared a Bien de Interés Cultural landmark in 1931.

Full Article ↗ (https://en.wikipedia.org/?curid=41200727)

Plaça de Tetuan, Barcelona

Plaça de Tetuan (Catalan pronunciation: [ˈpl̪asə ðə tət̪uˈan]) is a major square in Barcelona (Catalonia, Spain). It is in Fort Pienc, in the central district of Eixample, at the busy intersection of Gran Via de les Corts Catalanes and Passeig de Sant Joan. The square is named after the siege and occupation of the Moroccan city of Tetuan by general Joan Prim and Catalan volunteers. It was formerly called Hermenegildo Giner de los Ríos.

Full Article ↗ (https://en.wikipedia.org/?curid=27377962)
